Annual Dinner (Black Tie): Thursday, 17 November 2011 at 6.45 pm for 7.30 pm

Worshipful Company of Tallow Chandlers, 4, Dowgate Hill, London EC4R 2SH

The London Branch's Annual Dinner is a key event in our calendar. This year we will welcome members and their guests in the splendid surroundings of the Worshipful Company of Tallow Chandlers. This Grade I listed building was built in 1672 after the destruction of the original hall during the Great Fire of London. Having survived the Blitz, it is one of the few Livery Halls to remain unchanged since the 17th Century.

Before dining in the warmth of the Hall, there will be a champagne reception. Our Principal Guest will be Sir Gavyn Arthur who will address us after dinner. The ticket price has been kept to just £97 for the Reception, a three course meal and all drinks.

To book, print this page, complete the form and send it to Branch Treasurer Bruce Leahy with payment. You can also pay by BACS (details below).
